

Lorraine Lamm, CNM, MSN, RN, Certified Nurse Midwife

Education and Training

- Practicing Midwifery since 2015
- Master of Science Degree, Midwifery, State University of New York at Downstate, Brooklyn, NY
- Master of Science Degree, Healthcare Administration, Capella University, Minneapolis, MN
- Bachelor of Science Degree in Nursing, The College of New Rochelle, NY

As a certified nurse midwife, Lorraine provides prenatal and intrapartum care to expectant mothers and facilitates births at the New Beginnings Birthing Suites of Wayne Memorial Hospital in Honesdale. Lorraine also offers postpartum care and sees gynecology patients for exams and a number of gynecological issues. She conducts outpatient visits primarily at the Women's Health Center of Pike County located in Dingmans Ferry, PA.