

Salma Mustafa, MD, Internal Medicine

Education and Training

- Board Certified in Internal Medicine
- Medical Degree, (MBBS), University of Khartoum, Sudan
- Residency in Internal Medicine, St. Luke's Hospital, Chesterfield, Missouri

Dr. Mustafa provides primary care to patients age 18 and older including routine exams, management of chronic disease and the diagnosis and treatment of acute conditions. She joined WMCHC in 2024 with nearly 30 years' experience practicing in the U.S. and other countries. She has served as attending physician of internal medicine for Geisinger Medical Center, Danville, PA as well as attending physician /clinical faculty member at St. Luke's where she ultimately oversaw the resident's ambulatory clinic. Additionally, Dr. Mustafa spent four years in private practice in Northeast Africa. She is a native of Sudan.